BOX FACTORY FOR THE ARTS

Watercolor Breakthrough, a two-day workshop with award-winning South Bend watercolorist Stephen Blackburn will be held October 16 and 17 at the Box Factory for the Arts, 1101 Broad St., St. Joseph, MI. The workshop will be held from 10 am to 3 pm each day with lunch provided. The cost of the workshop is $160 and must be paid at time of registration. Once registered, participants will receive a materials list for the workshop.

Steve's workshop will focus on experimental pouring techniques, using frisket, poured paint and traditional brushwork. Working with this exciting pouring technique, participants will learn to advance painting skills. Under Steve's instruction participants will develop a new personal painting style; fix problem areas in their paintings; learn how to use color logically; open up new ways of seeing values and shapes; and discover what works in a painting. Participants can bring their own photos to the workshop; however, Blackburn stresses the importance of close-focus subjects for best results.
